DENTURE WEARERS SAVE CASH DURING HOLIDAY SEASON

Dr. Campbell's Annual Event Draws Hundreds

The dental profession has a problem staying busy during the latter part of November and December, according to Dr. F. E. Campbell, dentist. "Those whom we serve usually have their minds and money on things other than their teeth", Dr. Campbell said. "And most people are pressed for cash."

"It hurt my thrifty Scotch instinct to see expenses going on with considerably less income", Dr. Campbell continued. "So I decided years ago to make it especially worth while for denture patients to get work done during the holiday season. Response to my special offers has been gratifying."

MORE THAN MONEY TO BE CONSIDERED

Dr. Campbell pointed out that in November and December dentists have extra time to devote to each case. "No matter where you go for dentures during the holiday season, dentists are less pressed for time, as a rule", he said. "Even with special year-end offers, we have been less busy than in other months."

"Furthermore", Dr. Campbell concluded, "you may want a new fit or need denture repairs to get ready for holiday occasions. Dentists want to help you prepare for holiday festivities."

Dr. Campbell extends extra credit on his year-end offer. "I have never presented a more liberal plan than I have this year", Dr. Campbell declared. "Payment in most cases starts considerably after January 1st."
